

The Tulsi Trust

Indian Jungle Health & Education Project

www.tulsitrust.org.uk

Registered Charity No. 1075298

Newsletter
2010/11

Page 1

Above Our Hospital repainted in January.
Below Accommodation Block 'The Ranch' refurbished. Situated in the Hospital Grounds.

Top FMS Nurse Tracy West & Nurse Sally Dalton visit our Indian Jungle Hospital & School in Oct/Nov '09 with Homeopath Dr. Adikari.

R Dr. Lena runs Clinics 6 days a week including two outreach clinics in our villages each week + gives health checks to all our School Children including weekly lessons on healthcare.

Below Weekly Mother & Baby Clinics. Dr. Fatima Gynaecology from Raipur will come Bi-monthly to run a women's medical camp

R Our School Teachers volunteer to help run the Medical Camps: They make the Rosettes & the Chai etc

*Vijay sends thanks for the Glastonbury Festival FMS Clinic experience. Seen here with a TTT volunteer, treasurer, Chairperson, Friend & Trustee at the festival June '10.

*Nurse Sally & Dr. Zargar our City Doctor who will be Running medical Camps 4 times a year with city Doctor Specialists at our Hospital .

*Project Managers and workers with Sally Oct 2010

*Nurse Sally giving advice to a patient who had a spinal Operation in '09 he is now so much better, he can walk and sit with no pain after daily exercising.

* The Secretary & managers seeing to the weekly accounts for the Hospital and School.

*School children some with Nurse Tracy's gift of a full kit of football uniforms. *The Sports field is now levelled and smoothed .

*Special Needs Ambulance full of villagers going to Kanker for assessment and help with living costs.

* New Toilet Block for School; plumbing has been installed in the Hospital and School for tapped drinking water and drainage.

*Many thanks for Deepanker's donation ref successfully fitted prosthetic leg.

